A Deeper Dive into the Book of Revelation – Part 91

Highly Honored

The twenty-four elders around the throne of God in Revelation 4:4 seem to be members of an exclusive group with special qualifications and very high honor.

This is consistent with the roles of elders throughout the history of the people of God. Elders who performed their roles well were treated with high honor and given special considerations.

> "The elders who lead the church well should receive great honor. Those who work hard by speaking and teaching especially should receive great honor."—1 Timothy 5:17 (ICB)

Those who were considered worthy to be included among the elders were respected and revered. Their positions carried greater authority and responsibility.

> "Her husband is respected at the city gate, where he takes his seat among the elders of the land."—Proverbs 31:23 (NIV)

> "In the same way, I urge you who are younger: accept the authority of the elders."—1 Peter 5:5 (CEB)

> "Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren"—1 Timothy 5:1 (KJV)

The loss of elders was an occasion for grief and mourning.

> "The elders no longer sit at the gates of the city. The young men no longer make music."—Lamentations 5:14 (ERV)

Loss of respect for the elders was one sign of a nation's downfall.

> "Leaders were hung by their hands; Elders were not respected."—Lamentations 5:12 (NASB)

An accusation of wrongdoing against an elder was a very serious charge. It could only be accepted on the strength of multiple witnesses in agreement.

On the other hand, elders who brought dishonor to their roles were publicly rebuked and disgraced.

> "Do not accept an accusation against an elder unless it is based on [the testimony of at least] two or three witnesses. As for those [elders] who continue in sin, reprimand them in the presence of all [the congregation], so that the rest will be warned. I solemnly charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of His chosen angels that you guard and keep these rules without bias, doing nothing out of favoritism."—1 Timothy 5:19-21 (AMP)

Qualifications

In contrast to the five-fold ministry of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers, whose qualifications are based on gifts and callings, elders were qualified based on godly character and integrity. Because of this, the elders were often some of the most Christ-like people in their congregations.

> "For this reason I left you behind in Crete, so that you would set right what remains unfinished, and appoint elders in every city as I directed you, namely, a man of unquestionable integrity, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, not accused of being immoral or rebellious. For the overseer, as God's steward, must be blameless, not self-willed, not quick-tempered, not addicted to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain [but financially ethical]. And he must be hospitable [to believers, as well as strangers], a lover of what is good, sensible (upright), fair, devout, self-disciplined [above reproach—whether in public or in private]. He must hold firmly to the trustworthy word [of God] as it was taught to him, so that he will be able both to give accurate instruction in sound [reliable, error-free] doctrine and to refute those who contradict [it by explaining their error]."—Titus 1:5-9 (AMP)

The Overcomer's Crown

The twenty-four elders around the throne of God are dressed in white, which is the clothing of the Overcomers.

> "He who overcomes shall be clothed in white garments, and I will not blot out his name from the Book of Life; but I will confess his name before My Father and before His angels."—Revelation 3:5 (NKJV)

Not only that, but they are also wearing crowns.

> "Twenty-four [other] thrones surrounded the throne; and seated on these thrones were twenty-four elders dressed in white clothing, with crowns of gold on their heads."—Revelation 4:4 (AMP)

These crowns that the elders wear are not the crowns of ruling monarchs, but these are the crowns of those who have been victorious in life and have overcome sin, the world, and the devil.

The word used for crown here in the original language is "stephanos," meaning "the victor's crown." It is the same word that James used for the crown that will be awarded to those who overcome temptation.

> "Blessed (happy, to be envied) is the man who is patient under trial and stands up under temptation, for when he has stood the test and been approved, he will receive [the victor's] crown of life which God has promised to those who love Him."—James 1:12 (AMPC)

This is also the same crown that Jesus promised to the believers in Smyrna who remained faithful to Christ in the face of terrible persecution.

> "Don't be afraid of what you are going to suffer. Look! The devil is going to throw some of you into prison in order to test you. You will suffer hardship for ten days. Be faithful even to the point of death, and I will give you the crown of life."—Revelation 2:10 (CEB)

This is the crown that Paul looked forward to receiving after having fought a good fight and having kept the faith as an honorable disciple of Christ.

> "For I am already about to be sacrificed [my life is about to be poured out as a drink offering]; the time of my [spirit's] release [from the body] is at hand and I will soon go free.
> "I have fought the good (worthy, honorable, and noble) fight, I have finished the race, I have kept (firmly held) the faith.
> "[As to what remains] henceforth there is laid up for me the [victor's] crown of righteousness [for being right with God and doing right], which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me and recompense me on that [great] day—and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved and yearned for and welcomed His appearing (His return)."—2 Timothy 4:6-8 (AMP)

Peter tells us that this crown is awarded to elders who have fulfilled their responsibilities well, so it makes sense that the twenty-four elders around the throne are wearing these victor's crowns.

> "To the elders among you, I appeal as a fellow elder and a witness of Christ's sufferings who also will share in the glory to be revealed: Be shepherds of God's flock that is under your care, watching over them—not because you must, but because you are willing, as God wants you to be; not pursuing dishonest gain, but eager to serve; not lording it over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock. And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that will never fade away."—1 Peter 5:1-4 (NIV)

These elders are Overcomers who have proven themselves to be worthy of positions of very high honor and responsibility in the Kingdom of God.

God's Inner Circle

As we read further in the book of Revelation, we see the elders interacting with John. It becomes obvious that these elders have special insight that John does not have.

When no one is found worthy to open the book with seven seals, John begins to weep bitterly. One of the elders offers comfort to John and tells him that Jesus is worthy to open the book, and he explains why.

> "Then one of the [twenty-four] elders said to me, 'Stop weeping! Look closely, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome and conquered! He can open the scroll and [break] its seven seals.'"—Revelation 5:5 (AMP)

Later, a vast multitude of people appear before the throne of God. One of the elders asks John who these people are. John has no idea who these people are, but he knows that the elder can explain it to him.

> "Then one of the elders said to me, 'Who are these people wearing white robes, and where did they come from?'
> "I said to him, 'Sir, you know.'"—Revelation 7:13-14 (CEB)

This elder not only has insight into who these people are and where they came from, but he is able to tell John how they qualified to be there and what will happen to them in the future!

> “And he said, ‘These are they who have come out of the great tribulation;
> they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.
> Therefore,
> “they are before the throne of God
> and serve him day and night in his temple;
> and he who sits on the throne > will shelter them with his presence.
> ‘Never again will they hunger;
> never again will they thirst.
> The sun will not beat down on them,’ > nor any scorching heat.
> For the Lamb at the center of the throne > will be their shepherd;
> ‘he will lead them to springs of living water.’
> ‘And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.’”
> —Revelation 7:14-17 (NIV)

So, who are these twenty-four elders? They seem to be members of God’s inner circle of most trusted disciples and friends. They sit in positions of high honor and great responsibility in the Kingdom of God.

It seems very fitting that one or two elders have conversations with John, who is also an elder, because John was one of the three disciples who made up Jesus’ inner circle of best friends and confidants during His time on earth, along with Peter and James.
